

Cranbrook Community Literacy Calendar 2009-10

ALL PROGRAMS ARE FREE!

| Day | StrongStart Amy Woodland | StrongStart Steeples | Play, Laugh & Learn | Learning Connections | Homework Help | ESL Conversation Café | Alphabet Soup | Seniors Computer |
|------------|---|---|--------------------------------|-----------------------------|--|--|----------------------|--|
| Monday | 8:45am-11:45am drop in program for parents /care givers & their pre-school children | 9am-12noon drop in program for parents /care givers & their pre-school children | | | | | | |
| Tuesday | 11:45am – 2:45am | 9am-12noon | | | Homework Help Gr 2-12 students at the Public Library 4-5:30pm & TM Roberts School 3-4:30pm | 7pm- 9pm Every Tuesday at Family Connections (46 17 th Ave S) ESL students gather for an ‘English only’ evening | | 11am – 12:30pm Seniors learn computer basics Joseph Creek Village Jan 19- Feb 23 |

| | | | | | | | | |
|-----------|----------------|---------------|---|--|---------------------------------------|--|---|--|
| Wednesday | 8:45am-11:45am | 12 noon - 3pm | 12:30 – 2:30 Parents & their kids learning & playing together Community Connections Jan 20–Mar 3 | 5-7:30pm Parents supporting their children in school Amy Woodland Feb 3-Mar 3 & Mar 24-April 21 | | 7pm – 9pm ESL Tutors Gather for monthly support & training Meetings | | |
| Thursday | 8:45am-11:45am | 9am-12noon | | | Parkland Middle School 3:15-4:45pm | | | |
| Friday | 8:45am-11:45am | 9am-12noon | | | | | 10:30am – 12:30 Parents & kids (aged 3-5) learning to cook – lunch is part of the program Family Connections Jan 29 – Mar 5 | |

Young Parents Education Program

A program for adults aged 16-25 to help them complete their Grade 12 with a children’s program onsite
Continuous intake with a maximum of 12 students. Contact Jody Lutzke @ 421-0475 for more info.

Settling In –English as a Second Language

A weekly English only conversation group along with one-to-one tutoring
Volunteer Tutor training available in the spring 2010 for new and ongoing tutors

Books for Babies

Public Library fills a cloth bag with a music cd, a board book and brochures about local children's program which is given to all mothers with 2 month old babies living in Cranbrook, distributed by the Public Health Nurses

Work Place Literacy Audit

A process to identify and address potential literacy barriers in the workplace. Available Winter/Spring 2010.

Family Literacy Day – January 27th Join CBAL and Cranbrook Public Library in the Manual Training Centre for an evening of song lead by Ani Hepher (Red Girl). Prizes, refreshments and lots of fun for the whole family. 6:30pm – 8:30pm

For Family Programming – contact Janice Reid @ 489-3917 or at jreid@cbal.org

For all other inquires – contact Katherine Hough – Community Literacy Coordinator @ 417-2896 or at khough@cbal.org